

Your Internship (f/m/d)

HR Talent Management

About you:

You are studying Psychology, Economics, or a comparable course of study, with a focus on human resources. You also have the following knowledge and skills:

- ✓ Initial practical experience in the area of human resources, e.g. through previous internships, as well as basic knowledge of HR Development, is an advantage
- ✓ Very good conceptual and analytical skills
- ✓ A structured approach; you work precisely and independently, are a team player and have a high level of motivation and strong communication skills as well as customer orientation
- ✓ Confident handling of Word, Excel and PowerPoint
- ✓ Very good knowledge of English

Your tasks:

As an intern, you will support the Talent Broker Team and DT Talent Squad in exciting tasks, for example:

- ✓ Support the development and iteration of our central Talent strategy at Deutsche Telekom.
- ✓ Be an active part of our Talent scouting and go with us on the search for (top tech) talents.
- ✓ Support our Talent Brokers in their daily work via preparation of templates and research of development opportunities for our talents across the company.
- ✓ Numbers don't scare you: you prepare business reports for our stakeholders in an appealing and representative way.
- ✓ Take responsibility for the set up and evaluation of presentations, surveys and reports.
- ✓ Manage our Talent Marketplace community, a virtual platform, that allows our customers (talents & business) to meet, engage and exchange.
